| Palm Coast | Yes | Debt Policy: Planning & Structure of Indebtedness section. | Debt Policy dated 11/5/2013. Could not find when borrowing authority initially granted. | Cannot find specific reference in the City Code, but Debt Policy references compliance with City Charter. Per Debt Policy, the only debt requiring voter referendum is General Obligation Bonds. Debt Policy available on website. | Per Kendra in the CM office, Council has the authority to borrow without voter referendum, but referred me to Helena Alves in Finance for details (386-986-3726) | https://library.municode.com/fl/palm_coast/codes/code_of_ordinances?nodeId=PTIIC00R_CH1GEP8_S1-90RNOAFPO |
| Port St. Lucie | Yes | Art. IX, Sec. 9.09, also see Art. XI, Sec. 11.11 | Adopted by Electorate 11/2/76 | Sec. 9.09 says borrowing must be approved by Ordinance. Sec. 11.11 says nothing in the charter shall be construed to prevent making or authorizing payment or contracts for capital improvement wholly or partly by the issuance of bonds or by making contract or lease, provided that the action is made or approved by ordinance. Per debt policy, debt must be approved by City Council. Only reference to voters is related to General Obligation Bonds. 2/2024 Debt Presentation to Council states Debt must be approved by Council as authorized by State statutes and City Charter.
