As a resident of Florida since 1965 and a current resident of North Port in 2017, I spent my youth and much of my adult life canoeing, sailing, kayaking and camping. I have seen huge changes, especially in the amount of housing and building. This generation has seen tremendous growth. I am worried that the beauty of the area will be lost if we do not continue to preserve greenspace for people to enjoy, provide for the wildlife which is being displaced, and protect our waters from pollutants which threaten to destroy the beauty and uniqueness of our area.
