

Agriculture

If you ate today, Thank a Farmer

Agriculture

If you ate today, Thank a Farmer

- Agricultural impact in Florida is Huge

- Florida is 2nd in Nation, Agriculture

- Florida is 1st in production of Orange, Tomatoes, Watermelon, Grapefruit, Sugar Cane, Snap Bean, Cucumbers.

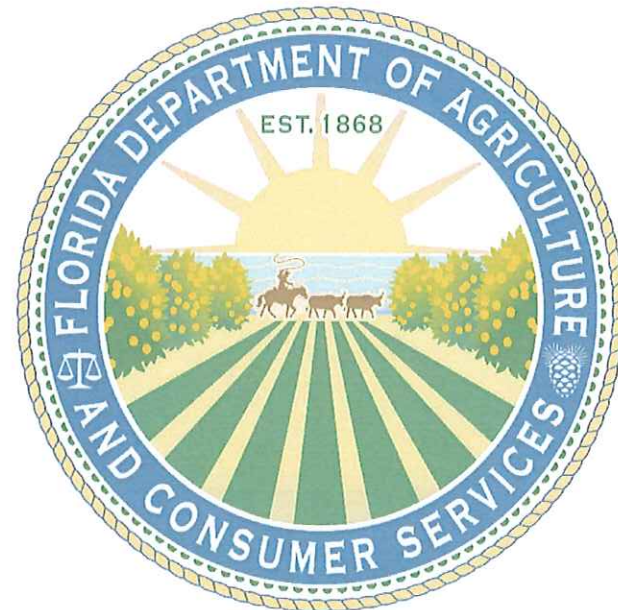

- Florida is 2nd in production of greenhouse and nursery products

- Florida is 2nd in production of Bell Peppers, Strawberry, Sweet Corn, Spring Potatoes, Peanuts, Tangerines, Avocadoes

- UF/IFAS study showed that Florida combined agriculture, natural resources and food industries added $132 billion to the state's economy in 2015 alone.
- Sarasota County accounts for $25 million
- Manatee County $298 million
- Desoto County $198 million
- Charlotte County $103 million
- Lee County $106 million
- Collier County 203 million

Horticulture

Florida: 2nd in Production of Greenhouse & nursery products

Zoning

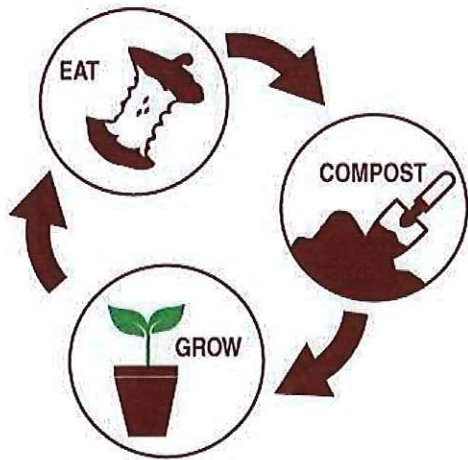

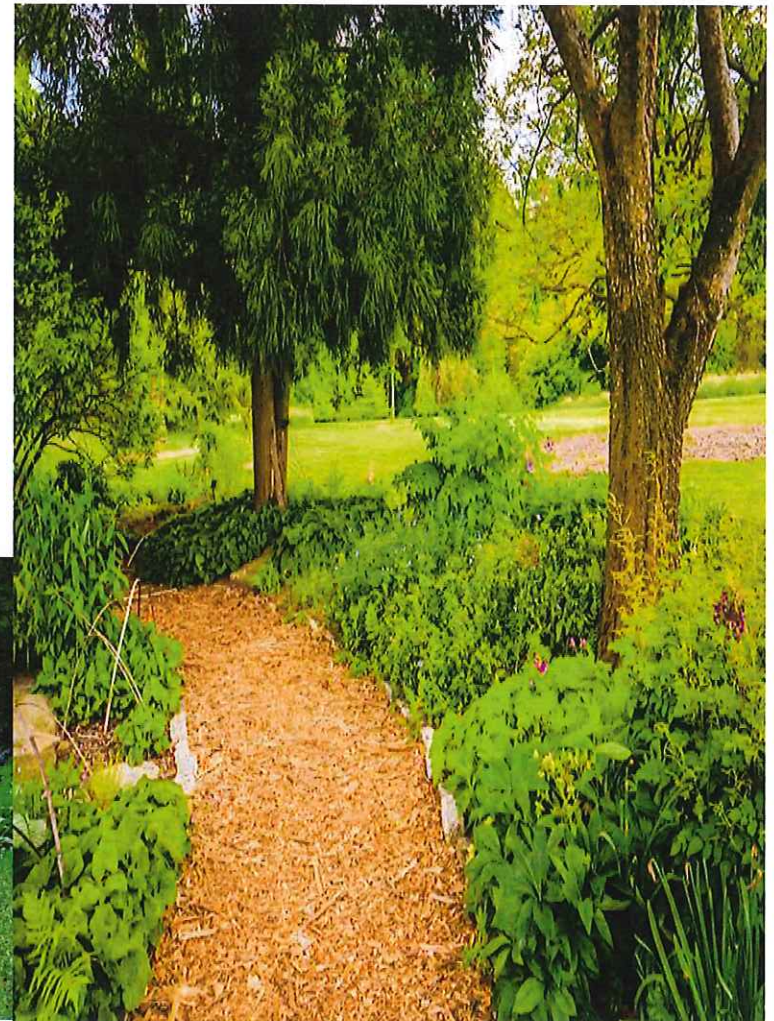

AGRICULTURAL

Horticulture

Florida: 2nd in Production of Greenhouse & nursery products

These lands are designated for agricultural related uses and incidental wholesale and retail sales. All agricultural uses listed herein shall be conducted on a minimum of five (5.0) gross acre land character

Intent

To have use of land for purposes including farming, cultivation of the soil for the growing of crops, recreation,
horticulture,

Floriculture

Florida Ranks 2nd in the US for Floriculture

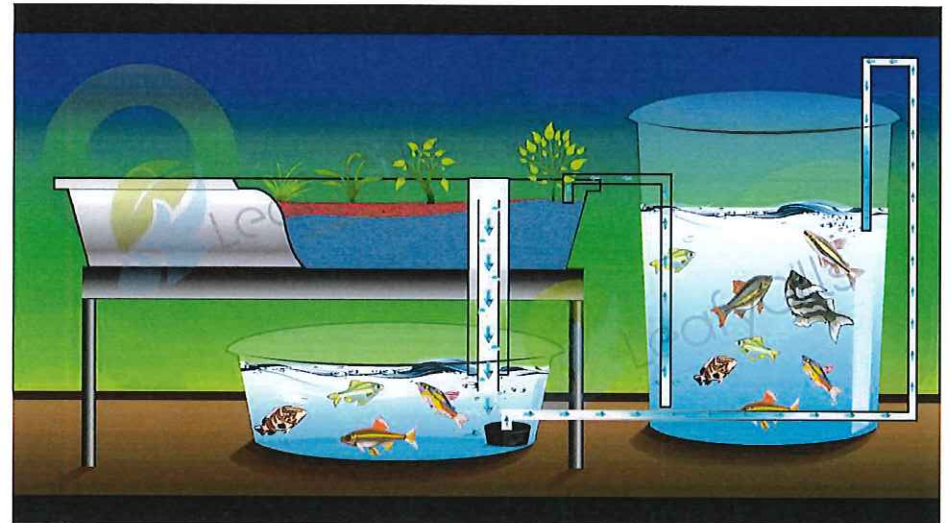

Viticulture

Florida Ranked 7th in Wine Production

Aquaculture

Florida ranked 7th among US States

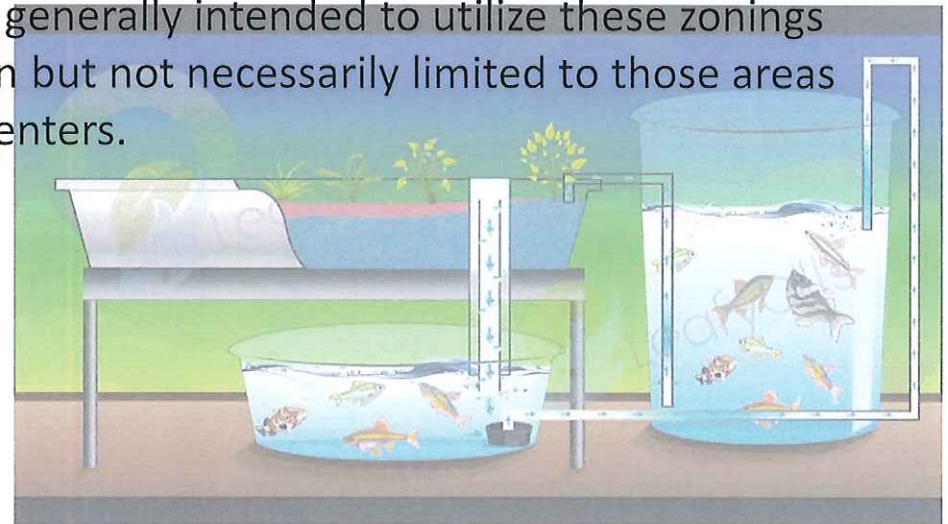

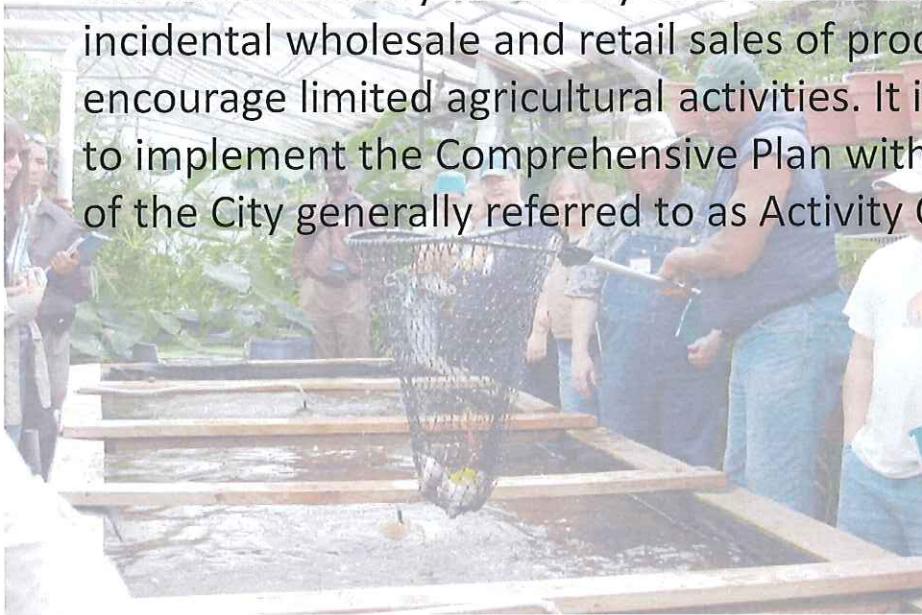

Aquaculture

Florida ranked 7th among US States

and the necessary accessory uses for storing the products. The term shall include incidental wholesale and retail sales of products. Agricultural zoning is to provide for and encourage limited agricultural activities. It is generally intended to utilize these zonings to implement the Comprehensive Plan within but not necessarily limited to those areas of the City generally referred to as Activity Centers.

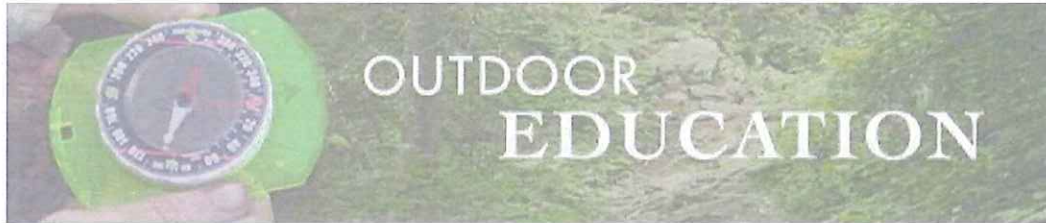

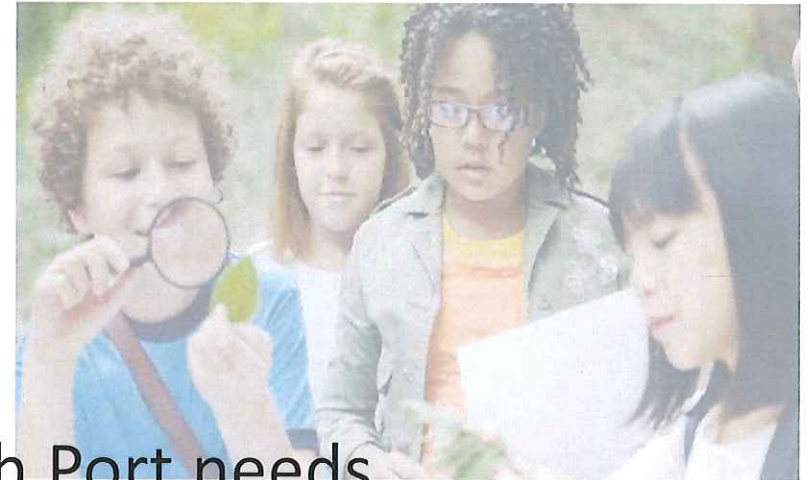

OUTDOOR EDUCATION

Think Outside - No Box Required

Think Outside - No Box Required

This is what The City of North Port needs.

