

Current ULDC Chapter 61 – DEFINITIONS

AUTOMOBILE — Every vehicle, except motorcycles, designed or carrying ten (10) passengers or less and used for the transportation of persons.

BOAT — Any vessel, watercraft or other artificial contrivance used, or which is capable of being used, as a means of transportation, mode of habitation or as a place of business, professional or social association on waters of North Port, Florida.

DEBRIS — The scattered remains of materials broken or destroyed; rubble or wreckage.

NUISANCE — Any thing, condition, or conduct that endangers health, safety, and welfare, or unreasonably offends the senses, or obstructs the free use and comfortable enjoyment of property, or essentially interferes with the comfortable enjoyment of life.

RACE CAR — A vehicle maintained for the express purpose of speed competitions.

RECREATIONAL VEHICLE [RV] — A recreational-vehicle-type unit primarily designed as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel use, which either has its own motive power or is mounted on or drawn by another vehicle. As defined below, the basic entities are:

(1) The travel trailer, including fifth-wheel travel trailers, which is a vehicular portable unit, mounted on wheels, of such a size or weight as not to require special highway movement permits when drawn by a motorized vehicle. It is primarily designed and constructed to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel use. It has a body width of no more than eight and one-half (8½) feet and an overall body length of no more than forty (40) feet when factory-equipped for the road.

(2) The camping trailer, which is a vehicular portable unit mounted on wheels and constructed with collapsible partial sidewalls which fold for towing by another vehicle and unfold at the campsite to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel use.

(3) The truck camper, which is a truck equipped with a portable unit designed to be loaded onto or affixed to the bed or chassis of the truck and constructed to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel use.

(4) The motor home, which is a vehicular unit which does not exceed the length and width limitations provided in F.S. § 316.515, is built on a self-propelled motor vehicle chassis and is primarily designed to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping or travel use.

(5) The park trailer, which is a transportable unit which has a body width not exceeding twelve (12) feet and which is built on a single chassis and is designed to provide seasonal or temporary living quarters when connected to utilities necessary for operation of installed fixtures and appliances. For purposes of these regulations, the terms "park model" and "park trailer" are synonymous TRAILER — Any vehicle which is drawn by or used in connection with a motor vehicle.

TRUCK — Any vehicle (excluding recreational vehicles) twenty-five (25) feet or less in length and having a gross vehicle weight of twelve thousand five hundred (12,500) pounds or less. It shall be prohibited to park any vehicle, excluding recreational vehicles, which exceed either this length or weight restriction upon any residentially zoned private property. [Amended 1-30-2012 by Ord. No. 2011-32]

VEHICLE — Any device or conveyance for transporting person(s) or property over the public streets, including, but not limited to, the automobile, motorcycle, motor truck, trailer and semitrailer, tractor-trailer combination, commercial vehicle or trailer, recreational vehicle or trailer, hobby car or truck and boat trailer.

VESSEL — Is synonymous with boat as referenced in s. 1(b), Art. VII of the State Constitution and includes every description of watercraft, barge, and air boat, other than a seaplane on the water, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water.
