The aggregate shall apply separately to the Premises and shall not be shared among other locations. Tenant's liability insurance policy shall be the primary coverage on the Premises and Landlord shall be named as an additional insured under the policy.

Fire Damage Liability Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain for the duration of this Agreement, fire damage liability insurance on the Premises in the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00). Landlord shall be named as an additional insured under the policy.

All Risk/Special Perils/Casualty Insurance. Tenant shall procure and maintain for the duration of this Agreement, all risk/special perils/casualty (to include sinkhole) property insurance (or the equivalent) to cover loss on the Premises resulting from damage to or destruction of personal property contents. The policy shall cover one hundred (100%) of the replacement cost of Tenant's tangible personal property and content and shall include an agreed value endorsement to waive coinsurance. Coverage shall also include continued full payment of rents to Landlord for up to one (1) year after damage or destruction of the Premises.

Worker's Compensation Coverage. If Tenant is required by law to obtain worker's compensation coverage, proof of insurance in the statutorily required amounts must be provided.

Certificates of Insurance and Renewal Policies. Within ten (10) days of procurement, Tenant shall supply Landlord with certificates of insurance showing that all coverage required pursuant to this Agreement is in full force and effect. All certificates of insurance shall be provided to the City Clerk's Office of the City of North Port, together with a copy of this Agreement. From time to time, Tenant shall procure and pay for renewals of this insurance before it expires. Tenant shall deliver to Landlord the renewal policy at least ten (10) days before the existing policy expires.

Other Requirements. All policies must be issued by companies of recognized responsibility licensed to do business in Florida and must contain a provision that prohibits cancellation unless Landlord is given at least ten (10) days' prior written notice of cancellation by the insurance company. Landlord is not responsible for any premium payments or deductibles on Tenant's policies. Landlord reserves the right to review, alter, and amend the insurance requirements herein as needed on a yearly basis.

12. Indemnification.

12.1. Reimbursement, indemnification, and assumption of defense. To the extent permitted by Florida law, Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord and its respective Commissioners, officers, affiliates, agents, employees, and representatives (collectively, "Landlord Parties") for and will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Landlord Parties from and against any and all loss or damage sustained by, liability or charges imposed on, and claims or causes of action asserted against, landlord parties arising in whole or in part out of or by reason of: (i) any accident or occurrence in or on the Premises, any use of or business conducted in or on the Premises, or any hidden or apparent defect in the Premises; (ii) any damage to or loss of any property of Tenant or any person occupying the Premises or any of their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, affiliates, agents, employees, or contractors (collectively, "Tenant Parties"), whether this damage to or loss of property occurs on the Premises or on any other part of the Property; and (iii) any act, negligence, or fault of the Tenant Parties, whether occurring on the Premises or on any other part of the Property. Tenant's reimbursement and indemnity obligations will include, but not be limited to, any and all liabilities, claims, suits, penalties, assessments, fines, damages, interest, settlement amounts, judgments, losses and costs, including consequential, special indirect, and punitive damages, (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs, whether such fees and costs are incurred in negotiations, at the trial level or on appeal, or in the collection of attorneys' fees), and other expenses. Tenant shall not indemnify Landlord for that portion of any loss or damages proximately caused by Landlord's gross negligence.

12.2. Assumption of Liability and Waiver. Because of Tenant's insurance obligations under this Agreement, Tenant assumes full responsibility and liability for the condition of the Premises for the duration of this Agreement, and Tenant hereby waives all rights and claims against and holds harmless Landlord Parties, for any and all property loss or damage occurring anywhere on the Property and any and all personal injury or death occurring in or about the Premises and/or the Property. As part of its waiver, Tenant waives all rights and claims against Landlord Parties arising from: (i) theft, vandalism, criminal acts, or lack of security (Tenant hereby acknowledges that it is solely responsible for its own security, and that Landlord is not required to provide or to continue to provide any security equipment, devices, or services); (ii) any acts or omissions of other tenants of the Property or any other property owned or managed by Landlord; (iii) any freezing, bursting, or leaking of, or water otherwise coming out of pipes or sprinklers, leaks in the roof, or the lack of a sprinkler system or fire prevention system, or the failure of a sprinkler system or fire prevention system to work properly (Tenant hereby acknowledges that it has sole responsibility for insuring over loss or damage caused by malfunctions or failures to function of the sprinkler system or fire prevention system); (iv) any lack of or failure of the plumbing, heating, air conditioning, or any other mechanical system (including, but not limited to, those described in (iii) above); or (v) any failure to cause the Premises to comply with laws or otherwise to be in a condition suitable for Tenant's use. This provision and Tenant's reimbursement and indemnification obligations set out above will apply notwithstanding the fact that Landlord is the owner and landlord of the Premises, and even if the incident that is the subject of the waiver, reimbursement, or indemnification arises from the negligence of Landlord Parties, or any of them, or Landlord's contractors. This section 12 will not exclude liability if the exclusion of that liability is prohibited by the laws of the State of Florida.

12.3. Survival of Covenants. The agreements and covenants in this Section 12 shall survive termination or expiration of the Agreement with respect to matters that occur during its Term. The insurance coverage and limits required in this Agreement may or may not be adequate to protect the Landlord and such insurance coverage will not be deemed a limitation on the Tenant's liability under the indemnity provided in this Section. In any proceedings between the parties arising out of or related to this indemnity provision, the prevailing party shall be reimbursed all costs, expenses and reasonable attorney fees through all proceedings (at both trial and appellate levels).

12.4. Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to affect the rights, privileges and immunities of the Landlord as set forth in Florida Statutes, Section 768.28.

13. Default and Remedies.

13.1. Tenant Default. The occurrence of any one of the following events shall constitute a default of Tenant: (i) Abandonment of the Premises for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days; (ii) failure to pay rent or any other monies due and continuing for a period of ten (10) days after the same is due; (iii) filing a voluntary petition in bankruptcy; (iv) receivership, attachment, or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Tenant's assets on the Premises; (v) failure to execute and deliver to Landlord any estoppel certificate or Agreement amendment within the time periods and in the manner required; (vi) an assignment or sublease, or attempted assignment or sublease, of this Agreement or the Premises; (vii) failure in the performance of any agreements or obligations in this Agreement; (viii) chronic delinquency in the payment of rent, or any other payments required to be paid by Tenant under this Agreement; or (ix) failure to perform or observe any other condition or obligation of this Agreement and to cure such failure within thirty (30) days following Landlord's written notice to Tenant.

13.2. Landlord Default. Landlord shall be in default if Landlord fails to perform or observe any condition or obligation of this Agreement within thirty (30) days following Tenant's written notice to Landlord, provided that:

13.2.1. If the nature of the default reasonably requires more than thirty (30) days, Landlord shall not be in default hereunder if Landlord has promptly commenced and is diligently pursuing a cure; and 13.2.2. If the nature of the default poses an imminent danger to persons or property, then the period of time for cure shall be a reasonable period of time in light of the circumstances.

13.3. Landlord Remedies. In the event of Tenant's default, Landlord may: (i) Terminate this Agreement; (ii) re-enter the Premises, terminate Tenant's right of possession of the Premises, and re-let all or any part of the Premises; (iii) cure the default on behalf of Tenant and Tenant shall pay the reasonable costs of such cure upon written demand; and/or (iv) pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available under the law.

13.4. No Waiver of Landlord's Remedies. Landlord's acceptance of any rent payment in an amount less than the amount due and owing, and/or any other act of forbearance concerning any breach or default by Tenant, shall not constitute a waiver of Landlord's right to collect the full amount due or pursue remedies for default, including proceeding with an eviction claim. Landlord's acceptance of rent, partial rent, and/or any act of forbearance or waiver of any breach or default of this Agreement by Tenant shall not be construed as a continuing waiver or consent to any subsequent breach, or default by Tenant and shall not bar Landlord's right to demand strict compliance with that provision or any other provision of this Agreement. No course of dealing between Landlord and Tenant shall constitute a waiver of any of Landlord's rights or any of Tenant's obligations as due hereunder.

13.5. Tenant Remedies. In the event of Landlord's default, Tenant has the following remedies: (i) Cure the default on behalf of Landlord, and Landlord shall pay the reasonable costs of such cure upon written demand; and/or (ii) pursue any other remedy now or hereafter available under the law.

13.6. Mitigation. Both parties agree to mitigate their damages upon default.

14. Notices.

Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices, invoices, reports, or any other type of documentation required by this Agreement shall be made in writing and shall be deemed given and served when deposited in the United States mail, postage paid, to the addresses listed below.
