Amber--

I spoke to Brian and Jason Richter and as it stands now Brian has withdrawn as 5th trustee and was not appointed by the City. We need to put the 5th trustee appointment back on the agenda for the next meeting and we can discuss Brian's situation then.

Hi Scott,

Were you able to get ahold of Mr. Chippendale? Do you need anything else from me?

Have a great day!

Hi Scott,

Please see the message from Jason below and advise. I am not aware of any such limitations regarding the 5th Trustee. It is my understanding that it is at the Board's discretion on who the 5th Trustee is, and that there are no limitations.

Thank you!

Subject: FW: Pension Board

Amber,

Brian Chippendale was directed to withdraw from his position as a candidate for our pension board seat because he holds the current position of police officer. We were not given any direction that this violates any law when he was voted in as a member, but our department has informed him he cannot be a police officer and hold a pension board position. We need an answer to this ASAP please. Brian followed orders and wrote the withdrawal, but I think we need to know what he can/can't do before our organization forces him to withdraw his name from this position.

Respectfully,

Jason Richter, Commander

Good day,

In regards to my entering my name as a pension board member, I would respectfully withdraw my name for consideration. Due to I am still a full time Law Enforcement Officer and cannot hold both positions.
