Background Information

This item was requested by Madison Ingalls, Deputy Communications Manager.

We proudly recognize the outstanding achievements of the City's Communications Division and the North Port Police Department in the Certificate of Excellence in Government Communications Program through the Florida Municipal Communicators Association. Congratulations to Deputy Communications Manager Madison Ingalls, Communications Manager Jason Bartolone and North Port Police Department Chief of Staff Josh Taylor for earning individual Certificates of Excellence through exemplary work, training, and commitment to professional development.

Moreover, the City has been honored with two first-place FMCA Outstanding Awards for its "A Pathway Forward" Annual Report and its comprehensive Communications Plan. These accolades, chosen by peers in the government communications field, showcase our dedication to excellence in communicating with our community.

Please join us in applauding these exceptional individuals and the City's unwavering pursuit of effective and innovative communication strategies. Congratulations!
