Background Information

At the February 14 and May 23, 2017 City Commission meetings, the Commission discussed revisions to the City Commission compensation. Commission directed staff to bring back an ordinance that will allow for the City Commissioners to be paid bi-weekly as all other city employees are currently paid. Ordinance No. 2017-21 allows each commissioner to choose their individual pay frequency with the choices of the currently monthly pay or to switch to bi-weekly.

The requested change for the initial selection has been made.
