TITLE: Presentation of a Key to the City to John (Posthumously) and Christine Zagrobelny From the Olde World Restaurant.

Recommended Action

Present the Key to the City to John (posthumously) and Christine Zagrobelny from the Olde World Restaurant.

Background Information

This item was requested by Vice Mayor Langdon and approved by the Commission on May 10, 2022. The Olde World Restaurant under Christine's management has functioned as the heart of this City since its inception 35 years ago, carrying on a tradition started by her husband John. Many non-profits hold their meetings and functions at the Olde World Restaurant because Christine does not charge for her meeting rooms and frequently donates or discounts food for some of those events. She regularly donates food to the Chamber of Commerce for their educational programs, enabling the Chamber to offer local businesses quality education at no cost to them. She sits on several boards for causes she is passionate about and has made significant contributions to this community.
